

Regulations for the Establishment of the Office of Academic Research Ethics

2017.07.13 Passed in the 12th Administrative Meeting of the 105th academic year

Article 1 To establish campus academic ethics standards, deepen academic ethics education, ensure academic research integrity, and prevent violations of academic ethics, the Office of Academic Research Ethics (hereinafter "the Office") is hereby established, dedicated to managing and coordinating all matters related to academic ethics.

Article 2 The tasks of the Office are as follows:

1. Coordinate and establish academic ethics standards and management measures.
2. Assist in planning and establishing academic ethics education mechanisms.
3. Accept cases of academic ethics violations and refer them to the appropriate internal authority for processing.
4. Regularly convene cross-office and division meetings for the promotion and coordination of academic ethics affairs.
5. Assist in providing consultations related to academic ethics.

Article 3 The office shall have one Director, who oversees all affairs of the Office and shall be a professor concurrently appointed by the President. Additionally, several staff members and clerks may be appointed to assist in the Office's affairs.

Article 4 For matters not covered in the Regulations, they shall be handled in accordance with the laws and regulations of the supervisory authority and the relevant provisions of the school.

Article 5 After being passed by the Administrative Meeting, the Regulations shall be implemented.
